

Resource List for School Travel Initiatives

Introduction

Included in this information sheet are those organisations that could provide useful support, advice and resources for setting up, developing and continuing your school travel initiatives. This is by no means a complete list of all the organisations in the field, there are many which can easily be found from links pages on many of the websites mentioned here. We have tried to provide an overview of some of the key organisations in the different fields that travel to school initiatives, including Safe Routes to Schools and School Travel Plans, encompass.

Local authorities often produce their own resources for schools in their area. To find out what is available contact your local School Travel Advisor or Co-ordinator. Email schools@sustrans.org.uk or call 0117 915 0100 to find out who to contact in your area.
