

NN5A Thames Valley Cycle Route

Mile 67. The link path beside the busy Drayton Road reaches back to the edge of Sutton Courtenay village. It was opened by Steven Norris, Chairman of the National Cycling Strategy Board on 13th November 2002.

New path in open ground between railway and Station Road west of station and beside carpark when approaching from Cow Lane underpass. You are advised to dismount when using the station forecourt from east to west. Cow Lane is currently one-way southbound; northbound cyclists should dismount.

Black Line indicates new/recommended route 