Discover 14 wonderful miles from Cullen to Garmouth

Enjoy the dramatic coastal scenery along this 14 mile section of National Route 1. It offers an enjoyable day's ride along a mix of traffic-free coastal paths and minor roads or several opportunities for short trips such as:

- 1<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> miles - travel over the old railway viaduct high above Cullen and follow the coastal path to Portknockie and the Bow Fiddle Rock
- 1<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> miles - follow the coastal path between the fishing villages of Portknockie and Findochty (pronounced 'Finechty')
- 2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> miles - take the railway path (opened 2005) into Buckie. The path can be accessed from the other side of the A942 from Findochty
- From Garmouth, follow the old railway path east across the Speyside Viaduct. At the other side of the viaduct you can head north to visit the Moray Firth Wildlife Centre - 2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> miles - or join the Speyside Way as it heads south to the Highlands. From Garmouth you can also reach the Lein at Kingston, now a Scottish Wildlife Trust Reserve.

The National Cycle Network is a comprehensive network of safe and attractive walking and cycling routes throughout the UK. 10,000 miles will be completed by the end of 2005 – one third traffic-free, the rest following quiet lanes or traffic-calmed roads. The National Cycle Network is co-ordinated by Sustrans, the UK's leading sustainable transport charity, and other partners, such as local authorities.

For more information on routes in your area, or more about Sustrans and how to become a Supporter, visit or call:

Know the Code before you go ... Enjoy Scotland's outdoors - responsibly!

Everyone has the right to be on most land and inland water providing they act responsibly. Your access rights and responsibilities are explained fully in the Scottish Outdoor Access Code.

Whether you're in the outdoors or managing the outdoors, the key things are to :

- take responsibility for your own actions;
- respect the interests of other people;
- care for the environment.

Find out more by visiting www.outdooraccess-scotland.com or phoning your local Scottish Natural Heritage office.

When you are on the National Cycle Network you will see these signs, red for national route, blue for regional route.
